

There are million Reasons to Adopt a Cat

Featured Cat this Month is

Jamie

Domestic- Short-hair- Black-Large-Male

Jamie is a lover, not a fighter, and when his owners left him behind when they moved, he found himself on the losing end of one too many battles with aggressive neighborhood cats. Fancy Cats came to the rescue, but too many disappointments in his short life had taught Jamie not to give his trust easily. Slowly he's come to trust his foster mom, and eventually began snuggling in bed with her at night and giving her headbutts on the stairs. He's still a bashful boy, but under his somewhat gruff exterior is a sweet cat who longs for a quiet, stable permanent home. Jamie would be ok on his own, but he would also enjoy a friendly feline companion. Not quite ready to adopt but would like to foster a cat or kitten? Email info@fancycats.org to find out how you can help. This pet is up to date with routine shots. This pet is already house trained. This pet has been altered.